WE GREW: A NEW ADMINISTRATION BUILDING, THE BARRACKS, TRAILER CITY

A mighty building program transformed Mississippi College into one of the South's greatest institutions of Christian education and higher learning. Contributions from Mississippi Baptists, College Alumni, and many other generous friends of the college made this program of expansion possible.

The spirit of Christian love, fellowship, and devotion to God was again the predominant characteristic of the college. The influence of this spirit was reached, through M. DEDICATION

We are proud to dedicate the 41st volume of the Mississippi College TRIBESMAN to our president, Dr. D. M. Nelson, whose challenging spirit, tireless energy, and inspired vision have been devoted to the task of guiding and enlarging Mississippi College. Always ready to help us with our problems and never failing in his example of leadership, Dr. Nelson continues to prepare men and women for positions of greatness. We are confident that the destiny of the college is safe in his hands.

For fifteen years Dr. Nelson has successfully guided Mississippi College through depression and prosperity. He is continuing his able leadership through the school's greatest period of physical expansion and the largest student enrollment in history.

ADMINISTRATION

This year, with twice the number of students that have ever been on Mississippi College campus before, the Administration has been burdened because of this enormous enrollment and the lack of adequate office and classroom facilities. The number of records required for each student has increased; thus, entailing more work for the office force, who hopefully look forward to the completion of the new Administration Building in which they will have more floor space as well as better equipment.

It is now the vogue for married veterans to attend college. Mississippi College has been blessed with a number of these married students. However, they have brought additional work and worry to the Administration, for these students must have adequate housing for themselves and their families.

Despite all these problems, handicaps, and difficulties, the Administration and faculty have cheerfully and competently gone about their work. Our hats off to these who have worked so faithfully.

Student government and student cooperation with the faculty are the keynotes of the self-governing body of students at Mississippi College. The Student Body Government attempts to preserve the strength of the college and at the same time guide student enterprise and promote legislation for the good of the students. The officers of the student body form the core of the Executive Council which studies proposed legislation and makes recommendations to the student body.

The student body this year far exceeded any in the past in number; consequently, President Albert Gore was faced with the challenging task of guiding nine hundred students through a year of crowded conditions, when school began last September. Now that the year is over, the records will show that he and the executive council have done their work well.

In the second year of its existence the Women's Student Government, under the guidance of Jean Furr, met and successfully coped with the problems arising from a doubled enrollment of women students. The W. S. G., advised by Mrs. Elsey, the Dean of Women, sponsored an efficient system of self-government for all dormitory students in matters relative to the conduct of its members, both as individuals and as a social group.

There appeared a new group on the campus this year, the Men's Representative Council, presided over by Herschel Saucier and advised by "Aunt Jack." It was no governing body but merely one that was originated for the betterment of the conditions of the men students. In its every undertaking, the Council acted in an effort to make campus life more pleasant.

Within these pages we have tried to record your life on the Mississippi College campus. It has been fun working with those who gave willingly of their time and ability that this book might become a reality, though there have been a few sleepless nights and some headaches.

To everyone who helped in any way we wish to express our sincere appreciation.

Particularly we wish to thank Mr. Bill Benson, Jr., of the Benson Printing Company, for his helpful suggestions in planning our book. We are grateful to Mr. Price of the Price Photo Service for his excellent and efficient photographic work. Rutledge Courtney assisted in the task of writing and Buddy LaVail helped us out of an impossible situation with his snap-shots—these, too, we wish to thank.

In view of the fact that none of our annuals have come from the press on schedule in the past several years, there is considerable pessimism concerning the 1947 TRIBESMAN. If nothing out of the ordinary happens, it will come from the publishers during the latter part of May. It is our hope that it will serve to keep alive the memories of your stay on the M. C. campus.

The publication of the Mississippi College magazine, the Arrowhead, was resumed this year after being suspended in 1941 for the duration of the war. David Dale and Lavelle Perkins are to be com-

Proof that Leon and Ed worked was the fact that their newspaper hit the campus every Friday. With a hard working staff they published a creditable paper which has contributed much toward an active campus spirit.

A black and white photograph showing a man and a woman on a steep, eroded hillside. The man, wearing a light-colored short-sleeved shirt and dark trousers, is leaning over the woman. The woman is wearing a patterned dress and is standing on the edge of the cliff. The hillside is steep and shows signs of erosion with vertical ridges. In the background, there are some trees and a clear sky. A white rectangular box with the text "DON'T DO IT, DARLING" is positioned in the upper right corner of the image.

COACH ROBINSON

FULTON

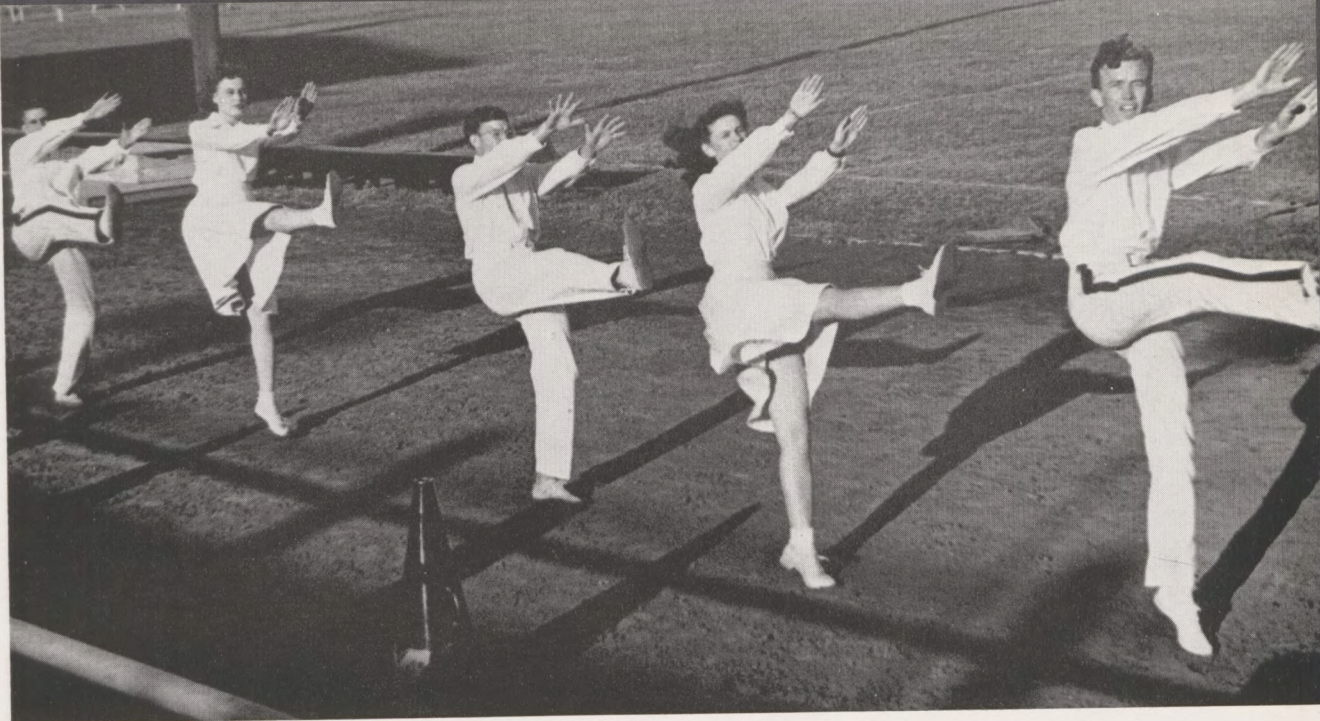

As school opened on September ninth with the largest enrollment in history, the student body eagerly awaited the development of the athletic program. With the return of five lettermen from the 1942 football season and various basketball stars of years gone by plus the potential new arrivals, the students assumed a very optimistic outlook toward the success of the athletic teams to be fielded during the 1946 and 1947 season.

With an overflow of material available for every sport, coaches Robinson, Landrum, Fulton, and McLeod performed an excellent job of selecting the teams that represented the school in the various athletic contests. At all times they instilled in the players the principles of Christian Sportsmanship that typifies Mississippi College.

The coaches and players were greatly aided by the first-rate performance of the cheerleaders in keeping the school spirit at its high level. Head cheerleader, Sam Green, and his assistants, John "Rabbi" Olander, Benny Moore, Betty Newton, and Ruth McGuffee kept the stands rocking with encouragement from the student body. Not even during the hard fought but disastrous game with the boys from Southern Louisiana did the visvacity of the backers falter.

When the Choctaws had turned in their uniforms and hung up their racks for the last time, they deserved a big "well done" from all the M. C. fans, for they had truly ended the season successfully. Playing nine games all the way from Danville, Kentucky, and Pensacola, Florida, to Mexico City, Mexico, the team turned in a record of seven victories and two defeats. It may be noted that only one defeat was suffered at the hands of a college team, the other being inflicted by the Naval Air Station eleven from Pensacola which was sparked by Annapolis stars of former years.

And THE CHOCTAWS

On September third, five lettermen and about eighty hopefuls met with the coaches for the first day of football practice since 1942, when football was suspended by the trustees for the duration. After almost four weeks practice and several scrimmages with nearby junior colleges, the boys began to shape up as a team should; however, when the game with the Naval Air Station at Pensacola rolled around, the M. C. fans held their breath, for the Choctaws were pretty much an unknown quantity.

THE TEAM

Spring practice began in January for "hopefuls" for the 1947 season.

Mississippi College, 13; Pensacola Naval Air Station, 39

The untested Choctaw team dropped its opening game at Pensacola to the score of 39-13. The M. C. boys played hard but the combination of warm Florida weather and former Navy backfield star, Hillis Hollis, proved too much for them.

FOOTBALL AT M. C.

The Tomahawk struck first in the third quarter when "Sugar" Green intercepted a N.A.S. pass and traveled 67 yards to score for the Chocs, after which Earhart converted for the extra point. Later in the game Albert Gore moved the ball over the double stripe from the nine yard line to account for the Tribesmen's second and last score. Three of the Pensacola scores were made in the waning minutes of the game against tired Choctaws who were unused to playing ball in the warm Pensacola sun.

Mississippi College, 24; Alabama Teachers, 12

College football returned to Mississippi College as the M. C. eleven scalped the Livingston Alabama Teachers. It was in this game that Coach Stan Robinson paraded his team before 2500 fans and showed them a real ball club. The victory was decisive for the Choctaws, who were never in danger. Howard scored first for the Home team early in the game after Harrison and Hardage had recovered a fumble on the opening kickoff to the boys from Alabama. Shortly afterward Gore raced 65 yards before being caught from behind, but this Choc scoring threat was eliminated by an intercepted pass. Another drive was climaxed by Howard when he again scored on a right end run. In the early minutes of the second quarter Howard Green executed a beautiful cut-back through right tackle that was good for 33 yards and 6 points. The second half started slowly, but gained momentum and reached its climax as Clyde Howard circled right end for 17 yards to score his third touchdown of the game. For the fourth time the attempt to convert failed and the Choctaws led 24-0.

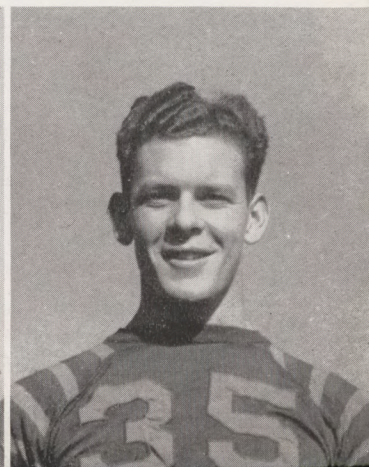

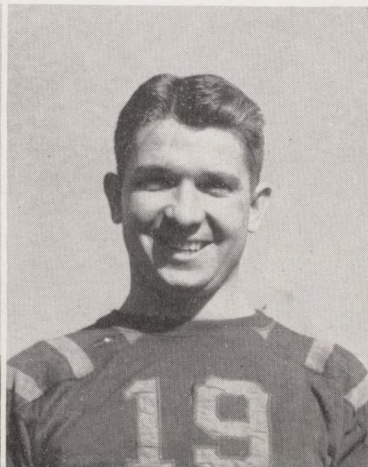

A pass in the fourth quarter set up Alabama's first score, after which Speedy Askew raced 19 yards for same. Shortly before the final whistle another Alabama drive was brought to a climax when Landers fought his way through the Choc line for the second and final Teachers score.

Mississippi College 26; Centre College, 6

On October 12 the M. C. boys journeyed up to Danville, Ky., to defeat the Center College Praying Colonels 26-6 in a hard fought but one-sided game.

The Chocs took advantage of the butter fingers of the Colonel backs to recover six of the seven Centre fumbles.

The ice was broken in the second quarter when Jim Brummett, flashly halfback for the Colonels, rolled off 18 yards of beautiful broken-field running to give the Kentucky team a 6-0 lead. The visiting team soon retaliated, however, in the form of an eight yard pass from Webb to Howard that resulted in a touchdown. As the half ended the score was tied 6-6.

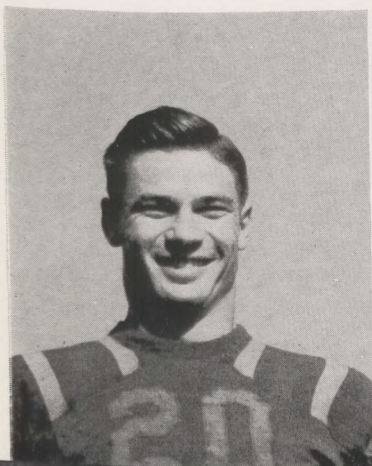

In the third quarter the M. C. squad threw the book at the Centre team, racking up three touchdowns and two extra points in rapid succession. "Sugar" Green brought the crowd to its feet as he traveled 60 yards off left tackle for the second M. C. score. The next time Clyde Howard put a Colonel fumble on the eight yard line to good use, and on the next play traveled eight yards for his second touchdown of the game. Webb added his second successful placement to the score. Keith Ginn accounted for the last Brave score on the receiving end of Webb's 34 yard pass. Both teams played on even terms during the final quarter with the Chocs on top as the final whistle sounded.

Mississippi College, 20; Sewanee, 6

Fans who like their games made up of long runs and thrilling passes were well satisfied when the whistle blew at the end of the last quarter of the Choctaw-Tiger tilt at M. C. on October 19. Three of the game's four touchdowns were scored on runs of 50 yards or over, and the other was scored from the 36 yard marker.

Howard marked up the first Choctaw score from the Sewanee 36 yard stripe as he took the ball around right end on one of the reverses for which the M. C. boys became famous. The visitors took the kickoff after the score and punted to Webb after a series of running plays had failed to gain a first down. After a five yard off-side penalty against the visitors, Albert Gore took the ball from Webb and Howard on a double reverse and skirted the left side of the line for 55 yards and another Indian score. Gore also added his second extra point by-means-of a placement. Harrison kicked to the Sewanee Tigers who, after again failing to make the necessary ten yards, punted to Webb on the 25 who ran back to his own 42. On the next play Webb took the ball through the line after a neat double fake and raced all the way for the final tally for the home team.

After the kickoff, an off-side penalty against M. C., and a first down for Sewanee, Flowers took the ball through right tackle and raced 55 yards to add his 6 point contribution to the visitor's cause.

The Choctaws again threatened in the last moments of the third quarter, but Bell ended this threat when he intercepted one of Webb's passes in the end zone and brought it out to his own 3 yard stripe. Again in the fourth period the Indians landed only eleven yards away from their objective, but were forced back by an off-side penalty and loss of yardage on an attempted pass play, after which the Tigers took over on downs.

Mississippi College, 0; Southeastern Louisiana, 14

The Choctaws faced the S. L. I. Lions with high hopes of upsetting the dope bucket, but came out only to find that old Doc Spoofofus is not often fooled. The M. C.

squad faced the heavier, more experienced Lions with plenty of courage and played a game that would be an asset to any school. Not once did their spirit falter, but the hard charging line and speedy backfield of the Louisiana team was too much for them. The visitors made its first tally early in the first quarter. Splitting the uprights on the extra point they made the score 7-0. The Choctaws threatened in the waning moments of the first quarter after a series of running and passing plays placed them on the Lion 4 yard line. However, they were unable to break through, and the visitors took over on downs.

Both teams played an ever scoreless game until the fourth period when a Southeastern substitute broke loose for the second score of the evening. The extra point was good and the score favored S. L. I. 14-0. Pete Evans brought the crowd to its feet in a beautiful 50 yard run for the Choctaws down the sidelines. The rest of the game was played on even terms.

Mississippi College, 32; Louisiana College, 0

The Choctaws marked up their fifth win of the season by defeating the Louisiana College Wildcats at Alexandria, Louisiana. Coach Robbie took mercy on the L. C. boys and played everybody but the waterboy in the scoreless second half.

An intercepted pass put the M. C. squad in scoring position for the first time and Webb took the ball for the last six to score on an off tackle slant. The Choctaws kicked and another intercepted pass started the second scoring drive which ended when "Sugar" Green raced 38 yards for the second Brave score. Early in the second quarter M. C. recovered a Wildcat fumble and Webb plunged 10 yards for the tally. Bryan made the extra point. Louisiana College received and after failing to gain ground, punted to Clyde Howard who skirted the sidelines 75 yards for the fourth touchdown. Bryan again added the extra point. Five minutes before the half the scoring ended when Evans went 12 yards to climax a 62 yard drive for another Mississippi College touchdown. For the entire final half, M. C. used only reserve players and punted early in order to give its second and third stringers a lot of defensive work.

Mississippi College, 35; Millsaps 0

There was joy in the Indian camp and the Choctaws were holding their victory dance the night of November 21 after the mighty M. C. eleven had downed the rival Millsaps Majors 35-0. In defeating the hitherto unbeaten Majors the Choctaws marked up their ninth successive victory over the traditional rivals from Methodist Hill. Not for ten years have the Majors even had so much as a smell of the sacred soil behind the Choctaw goal line. The Majors showed very little offensive strength and did not even make a first down for the entire first half; their defensive strength can be gauged by the final score.

The first Choctaw score came midway during the first quarter on a six yard pass from Webb to Fulton after Webb had set up the play on a 32 yard run from the Major 43, and Gore, Webb, and Howard had carried it to the six.

The Indians kicked off to the Majors and after failing to gain ground Millsaps kicked, but Earhart broke through the Major line and blocked the attempt. MacIntosh recovered for the Majors but the ball went over to the Chocs on the Major twenty-eight. Green and Jennings went to the 15 for a first down and Jennings passed to Fulton, who was shoved out of bounds on the one foot line. On the next play Jennings plunged over for the touchdown.

Coach Robbie made it hard for 'em but it paid off.

Once again the Majors failed to make the necessary ten yards for a first down and kicked to the Choctaws who returned the ball to the Major 48 yard line. Green, Gore, and Jennings alternated carrying the leather to a first down on the Millsaps thirty-five. From there Jennings passed to Dunbar Lee for the third score of the game. The offense of both teams bogged down as Mississippi College received a number of penalties forcing the team to exchange punts with Millsaps just before the half ended.

Immediately after receiving the kickoff, the Majors rolled off their first down of the game. This drive was stopped by a Militant fumble that was recovered by Gore. Webb and Gore carried the leather to the three, from which point Webb went over for the score. After the Choctaw kickoff, Millsaps punted to Jones who brought the ball out to the M. C. three yard marker. An exchange of pass interceptions was executed and Green, Jennings, and Jones carried the ball to the Major 20 as the third quarter ended.

An almost new lineup was sent in for the Choctaws at the beginning of the fourth period, and this team rolled off a first down to put them on the ten. Carr and Muse gained five yards running, but lost seven on a fumble. However, it was on the next play the Dunbar Lee took a pass in the end zone for the final score of the game. Gore added his fifth successful conversion in five tries.

The Majors threatened during the waning minutes of the game when a bad pass from center and a blocked kick put the Chocs on their own seven, where Millsaps took over on downs. The Indian first string line was rushed into the battle and the threat ended when Edward Lee intercepted an enemy pass. As the statistics show, the victory was very decisive.

Mississippi College, 43; University of Mexico, 7

As the Choctaw eleven turned ambassadors of good will to our neighboring country south of the border, fifteen thousand screaming fans watched Mississippi College defeat the University of Mexico 43 to 7 in Mexico City's huge sports stadium. Green, Howard, Jones, Bryan, and Evans repeatedly broke through the University's defenses and each, except Green, was credited with at least one touchdown. The first quarter was closely contested, at the end of which the University boys were ahead 7-6.

When the Chocs had the game sewed up on the ground, they put on an aerial show for the fans, with Smith heaving some beautiful passes. The players themselves, reporting on the game after they returned, said it was "about like Millsaps."

PERFECT HOMECOMING

Homecoming Day at M. C. this year was heartily welcomed after having been discontinued for several years. Approximately 500 great friends of the college renewed old acquaintances and were thrilled by the sights of progress in the building program. Groups of students registered the alumni and escorted them about the campus to various places of interest. Some of the organizations on the campus served punch to the visitors.

Adding to the enjoyment of the alumni was a banquet held in the College Cafeteria, where President Nelson spoke, and new officers of the Alumni Association were elected. Later in the evening Choctaws on the campus were thrilled by a spectacular performance on the gridiron.

The M. C. Choctaws walked away with another victory under their belt after the game with the Stetson Hatters from Deland, Florida.

During the first half each team nullified the efforts of the other, and the playing was largely a dual between kickers. Most of the first half was played in M. C. territory and the Hatters penetrated the Choctaw 30 yard stripe three times but were stopped cold each time.

The second half opened with a bang as the Chocs kicked to the Stetson squad, which punted after being stopped just short of the midfield stripe. The Indians were unable to gain and the Hatters took over and pushed steadily down the field to the Choctaw 25 yard line, where they were stopped and the Chocs again took over. On a surprise play that pulled the home team out of a hole, "Sugar" Green took the ball on a reverse from Jennings and did 82 yards of beautiful broken field running for a 6-point donation to the Choctaw cause. Gore made it 7 by adding the extra point. Both teams went to their original status for the rest of the third and the beginning of the fourth quarter. Mississippi College once again came to life in the last quarter when Webb, Howard, and Green ran the ball into Deland territory. Webb then heaved a beautiful 40 yard touch-down pass to glue-fingered left end, Ray Fulton, for the last score of the evening. The extra point was no good.

The Crowning of the Queen.

M. C. kicked and Stetson, after failing to gain ground, attempted a punt which was blocked by Wells and recovered for the Chocs by Krout. The Indians moved camp to the Stetson 21 yard line and attempted a pass which was intercepted. The M. C. boys promptly retaliated by intercepting the next Florida pass, placing themselves on the 33 yard line in enemy territory, from which Jennings and Rainer moved the ball to the 24. Jennings then tossed a pass to Edward Lee who was downed on the 2 yard line, placing the Choctaws in scoring position just as the game ended.

Between the halves the spectators were entertained by the M. C. Band, as well as the traditional crowning of the Homecoming Queen. The Band, in its new uniforms, performed well, marching with skill and playing the "Alma Mater" only as Choctaws can. The queen of the evening, Miss June Watkins, was crowned in a colorful ceremony. From the distance there rolled onto the field a jeep converted into a golden pigskin bearing the queen and her maid of honor. After being escorted to her throne

The Choctaws gave an excellent performance for the HOMECOMERS by taking another scalp.

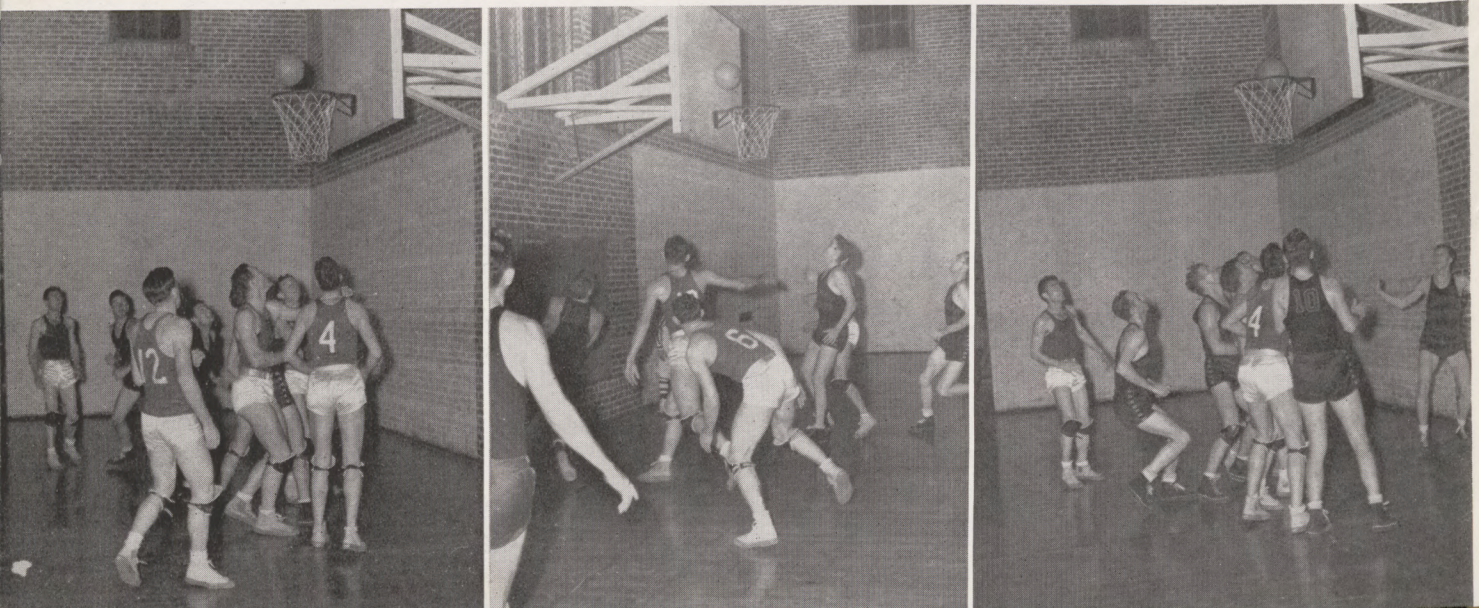

First row: Dorman, Fridge, John Kitchings, Merritt, Tulloh. Second row: Manager Olander, Carr, Ferrill, Atley Kitchings, Clark, Harold Kitchings, and Frank Evans.

With five lettermen leading the largest group of candidates ever to present itself in the history of Mississippi College basketball, the prospects for the 1946-47 squad looked good. After several days of practice, the players were divided into two groups, fifteen for the A squad, coached by "Lefty" Fulton, and fifteen for the B squad coached by Coach McLeod.

A tough looking schedule at the beginning of the season proved to be even tougher as the season progressed, but the team spirit never faltered; and the boys always came through in the manner of the good sportsmen they were.

The Choctaws fought a hard fight but were outmatched by Delta State.

When the annual went to press, the Choctaws had played fourteen games of the season. Through thirteen of them, we split games with Birmingham Southern, came out on top with Livingston Alabama Teachers, Southwestern, Louisiana College, and dropped the rest in hard fought games.

When the fourteenth game rolled around with Millsaps, the Choctaws went over to the City Auditorium a little doubtful as to who would win since the Majors had trampled Louisiana College much worse than we did. But that old Choctaw spirit soared to new heights as the team fought to a hotly contested victory with the support of our yells and the noise of the band. Harold Kitchings, Evans, Parkman, Clark, and Stratten played the entire game—to them go our thanks for the defeat of the traditional Choctaw rivals. The final score was 50 to 39.

With the Millsaps victory behind them, the Choctaws are looking forward to the remaining games with a renewed determination to bring home the scalps.

Harold made 26 of the 50 points that defeated Millsaps.

The track team came out on top last spring at the Southwestern Intercollegiate Track Meet at Memphis. This was further evidence of the rebirth of sports which had been discontinued during the war. With the assistance of manager "Rabbi" Olander, Coach Fulton deserves much of the credit for the team's outstanding performance.

With some tough training behind them, the Choctaws participated in only four events during the '46 season, but in these they demonstrated that winning M. C. spirit. They crowned the season at Memphis by winning the Southwestern Relays and brought home another trophy to add to the "M" Club collection.

T H E M C L U B

The "M" Club has always been a peer among campus organizations distinguishing itself by admitting only lettermen in athletics as members. It seeks to keep athletics at Mississippi College on a high plane and to bring athletes together on a common basis.

Under the guidance of Wendell Webb, president, the club has attained its highest membership this year. In addition to its support of the athletic program, it sponsored several campus entertainments, and continued to hold its reputation for having the most comfortably furnished lounge on the campus. Members not pictured below: Earheart, Hardage, Jennings, Dunbar Lee, Metts, and Wells.

*I*T WAS in 1943 that the TRIBESMAN first sponsored the election of Mr. and Miss M. C., one of the outstanding events of the year. This event has been repeated each year when the man and woman who best represent the ideals of Mississippi College are chosen by the popular vote of their fellow students on the basis of character, personality, and scholarship.

Jean Furr from Tylertown was chosen MISS MISSISSIPPI COLLEGE by a vast majority of the student body. Her quiet participation in all phases of religious activity, her capable leadership as president of the Women's Student Government, and her excellent scholastic record made her the first choice of everyone.

Albert Gore from Jackson was elected MR. MISSISSIPPI COLLEGE. Although Albert's stay on the Choctaw campus was interrupted by Uncle Sam, he has climaxed an enviable record this year as an outstanding athlete and president of the Student Body.

For the past thirteen years the publication, "Who's Who Among Students in American Colleges and Universities" has presented annually an extensive listing of America's outstanding college men and women. In addition to being one of the highest honors attainable by a college student, this publication serves as a reference manual which is referred to regularly by personnel managers seeking information on outstanding students.

A secret student-faculty committee selects the outstanding students on the M. C. Campus to be honored by inclusion in this nation-wide publication. Fourteen students were selected to represent M. C. in the 1947 edition of "Who's Who."

Angell, Case, Cochran.

WHO'S WHO IN AMERICAN

LELAND ANGELL. Even though Leland was at M. C. only one year, he proved to be an outstanding student leader in the religious activities on the campus, particularly in the Young Peoples' department of the Training Union.

CARL CASE. A transfer from Clarke, Carl has distinguished himself as a student pastor and has served during the past year as chorister for the Ministerial Association.

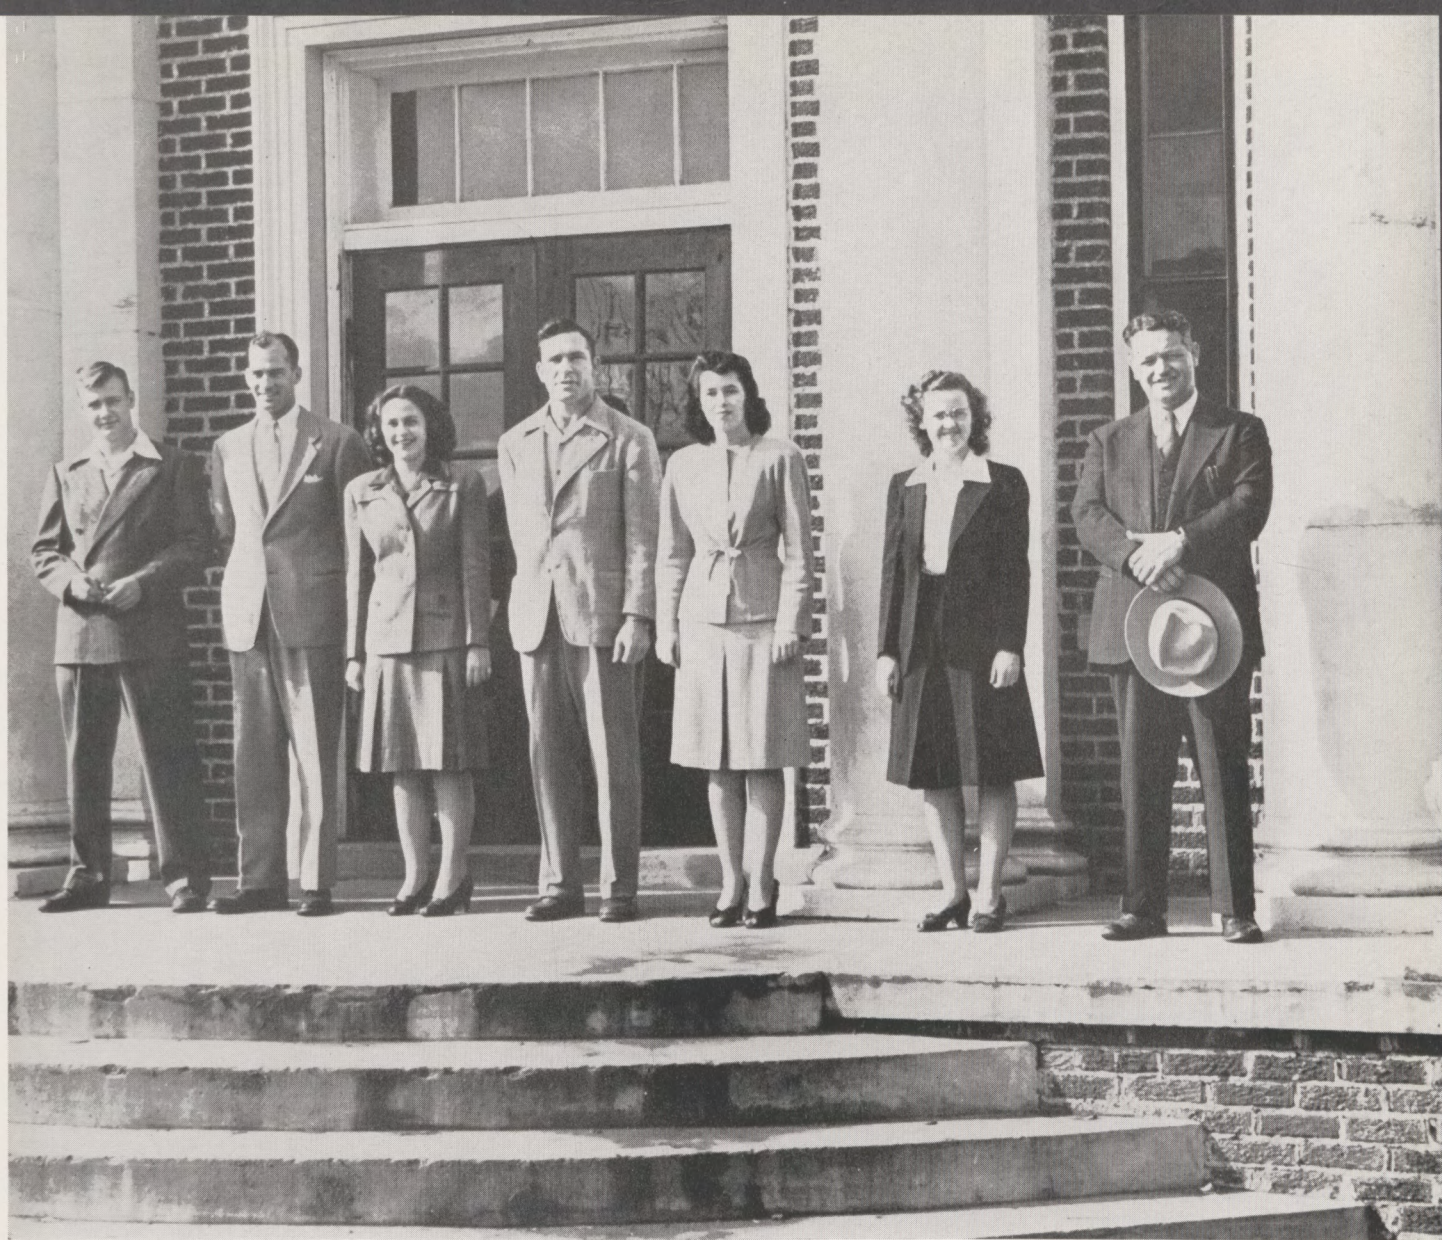

SAM COCHRAN. Sam's election as "Most Versatile" speaks for itself; however, it should be added that Sam has splendidly led the B. S. U. in one of its most successful years.

DAVID DALE. Besides being one of the outstanding M. C. orators, David put the college magazine, The Arrowhead, back into circulation after several years' suspension.

JOHN DEFOORE. John's many accomplishments at M. C. were collectively titled when he was named "Most Promising Senior" of the Class of '47.

JEAN FURR. In addition to her other achievements, Jean's vivaciousness and outstanding ability have gained for her the position of "Miss M. C."

ALBERT GORE. By helping bring home the victories in the football games this year, Albert won a place in the hearts of M. C. Choctaws, and he further proved his versatility by serving well as president of the largest student body in the history of M. C.

Dale, DeFoore, Furr, Gore, Horne, Mayhall, Sherrod.

COLLEGES AND UNIVERSITIES

MIRIAM HOLLIS. Even though absence from school during the first two terms this year prevented Miriam's filling her office as President of the B. S. U., her courageous spirit and her optimistic outlook have inspired M. C. students all the year.

ANNELLE HORNE. Assuming responsibility as President of the Y. W. A., Annelle displays, as well as in other capacities, her talent for quietly, efficiently getting the job well done.

BENNY LOYD. His congeniality combined with dignity and his skill in the act of teaching freshmen how to differentiate between nouns and adjectives, makes Mr. Loyd one of the most popular members of the M. C. faculty.

AGNES MATTHEWS. Students at M. C. regretted that Agnes' senior year was interrupted and missed her service as Devotional Vice-President of the B. S. U.

OLLIE MAE MAYHALL. Serving as Church Secretary and excelling as a student, Ollie Mae cheerfully contributed much to the lives of all Choctaws who know her.

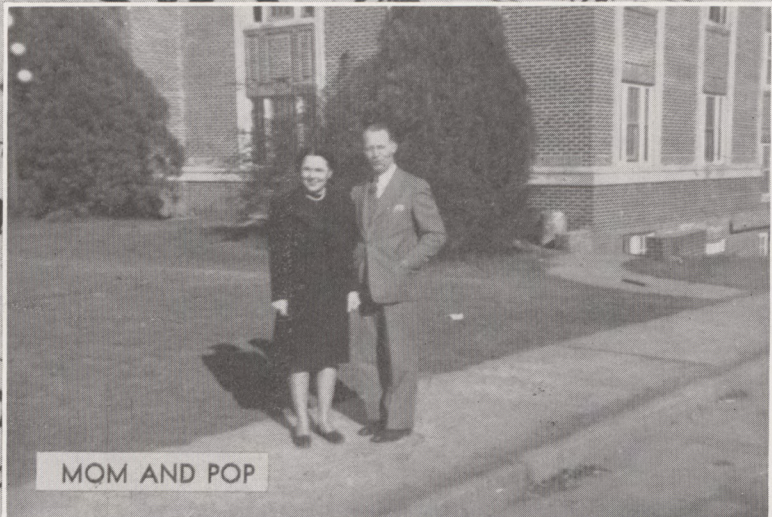

LAMAR PURYEAR. As an outstanding athlete, a friendly personality, and a very good student, Lamar proved to be the sort of Choctaw all M. C. students are proud of.

GLENN SHERROD. By leading the Ministerial Association through its greatest year, Glenn rendered a service that truly showed his ability as student and leader.

The Ministerial Association is the largest organization on the campus of Mississippi College and includes all the students studying for the Ministry. The enrollment this year has reached an all-time high of one hundred and forty members. The outstanding work of the year has been the purchase of a Mission Bus and the extension of the Mission program.

"Go ye into all the world and preach the gospel to every creature."

With special emphasis on the religious life of the campus, La Cadena or "the Chain," the B. S.
